Dear EXEL Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a General Meeting of Shareholders of EXEL Limited (the "Company") to be held at the Company's executive offices, located at Cumberland House, One Victoria Street, Hamilton, Bermuda HM11, on January 26, 1999, at 8:30 a.m. local time.

At the General Meeting you will be asked to vote upon the approval of a special resolution to change the name of the Company to "XL Capital Ltd".

Over the last few years, the Company has grown significantly and broadened its scope of operations considerably. Following an extensive review of the Company's operations, the Board of Directors and management feel that it is appropriate to change our name to reflect the increased role of our holding company and the current focus of our organization.

We believe the name "XL Capital Ltd" has several important advantages over the Company's current name, including better communicating that our organization supplies intellectual and financial capital to assure its customers' vitality and competitiveness. In addition, the new name will eliminate duplication of names within the organization and allow for closer identification between the Company and its operating subsidiaries which use "XL" in their corporate names. It will also facilitate the development of a global brand name under which all products and services offered by the Company's subsidiaries can be marketed.

The Notice of General Meeting and the Proxy Statement describing the special resolution in greater detail are attached. Whether or not you plan to attend the General Meeting, it is important that your shares be represented. Please give this information your careful consideration and complete, date, sign and return promptly the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. You may attend the meeting and vote your shares in person if you wish, even though you have previously returned your proxy.

We look forward to your support on this initiative and sharing with you the new "XL Capital Ltd".

Yours sincerely,

Brian M. O'Hara
President and Chief Executive Officer

As of December 21, 1998, there were outstanding _____ Class A Shares entitled to vote at the meeting, with each Class A Share entitling the holder of record on such date to one vote (subject to certain provisions of the Company's Articles of Association). - (2) To the Company's knowledge, no director or executive officer had a beneficial ownership interest in excess of 1.0% of the outstanding Class A Shares as of November 30, 1998. As a group, all directors and executive officers of the Company had a beneficial ownership interest in approximately 2.9% of the outstanding Class A Shares as of November 30, 1998. The percentages of outstanding Class A Shares are calculated separately for each Shareholder and for all directors and executive officers of the Company as a group on the basis of the number of outstanding Class A Shares as of November 30, 1998.

PROPOSED NAME CHANGE OF THE COMPANY

The Board of Directors proposes and recommends that the Shareholders approve the proposed special resolution to change the Company's name to "XL Capital Ltd". The Board of Directors and management of the Company believe that the name "XL Capital Ltd" has several important advantages as compared to the Company's current name. In particular, the name "XL Capital Ltd" better communicates that the Company, acting through its subsidiaries, is an insurance, reinsurance and financial services organization which applies intellectual and financial capital to assure its customers' economic vitality and to enhance their competitive positions. The new name also will allow for closer identification between the Company and its operating subsidiaries which use "XL" in their corporate names and facilitate the development of a global brand name under which all products and services offered by the Company's subsidiaries can be marketed.

If the special resolution is approved by the shareholders of the Company, notice of the adoption of the special resolution is expected to be filed with the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands shortly after the General Meeting. The change of the Company's name to "XL Capital Ltd" would become effective upon the filing of the notice referred to in the preceding sentence and the Registrar of Companies entering the new name of the Company in the register of companies.

The approval of the special resolution to change the Company's name requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at the General Meeting by the holders of Class A Shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting, provided there is a quorum (consisting of holders of at least 66-2/3% of the outstanding Class A Shares being present in person or by proxy).

Shareholders who abstain will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be treated as present and voting for purposes of determining the number of votes cast. If a broker or nominee indicates on its proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter as to certain shares and the proxy does not indicate a vote either for or against the resolution set out in the Notice of General Meeting (so-called "broker non-votes"), those Class A Shares will be treated as abstentions and accordingly, a broker non-vote will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be treated as shares that are present and voting for purposes of determining the number of vote cast.

OTHER MATTERS

While management knows of no other issues to be brought before the General Meeting which are not referred to in the Notice of General Meeting of Shareholders, if any other matters properly come before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy form to vote the proxy in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR 1999 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Shareholder proposals intended for inclusion in the Proxy Statement for the 1999 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders should have been sent to the Company's Secretary at Cumberland House, One Victoria Street, Hamilton HM 11, Bermuda and received by November 3, 1998. In addition, if a shareholder intends to present a proposal at the 1999 Annual General Meeting other than pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and if the proposal is not received by the Company's Secretary by January 3, 1999, then the proxies designated by the Board of Directors of the Company for the 1999 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders may vote in their discretion on any such proposal any shares for which they have been appointed proxies without mention of such matter in the Proxy Statement for such meeting or on the proxy card for such meeting.

PROXY SOLICITATION

The Company will bear the cost of this solicitation of proxies. Proxies may be solicited by mail, personal interview, telephone and telegraph by directors, officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries without receiving additional compensation. In addition to the foregoing, the Company has retained Georgeson & Company Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of approximately US $15,000, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements of that firm. Upon request, the Company will also reimburse
